Description

Some basic information about the job, and practical help for working within a Section.

This means:

- recognising the main features of your Section
- participating in the planning and running of Section meetings
- using games as a key part of the programme
- knowing what should happen at a Section meeting and why
- understanding your role in Scouting.

Questions

- Do you know where to find programme ideas?
- Can you run a game or activity within the Section?
- Can you explain what adults do in the running of the Section?
- Can you explain what young people do in the running of the Section?
- Do you know what the main features of the Section are? (for example: age, theme, decision-making, ceremonies etc.)

Delivery methods

- One to one
- Small Group

To validate this module you will need to complete two of the following:

- 1 Plan and run an activity appropriate to the Section and explain why different types of games are an important part of the programme. (OCN Unit B 3.2)
- 2 Plan and run a ceremony appropriate to the Section. (OCN Unit B 2.3)
- 3 Plan and run a game appropriate to the Section, outline the important criteria for games in Scouting. (OCN Unit B 3.3 and 3.4)
- 4 List sources of 'ready made' programme ideas. (OCN Unit B 3. 1)
- 5 Any other ideas, subject to agreement with a Training Adviser
